MARCH 11-13 2016

WEEKEND OVERVIEW

Coosa Lodge SPRING POWWOW

Every spring, in the woods high atop Lookout Mountain, Order of the Arrow members (Scouting's National Honor Society) gather at Comer Scout Reservation in Mentone to celebrate the Order's history and honor Scouting's American Indian heritage. Newcomers join alongside seasoned experts to expand our traditions of American Indian dancing, Indian regalia and crafts, and a whole lot of interesting exhibits. Once again, we're inviting all of you!

This Year Lodge and Council leadership have decided to improve upon an already great program! That's right folks there will be advancement opportunities, not just Merit Badges. But Cub Scout Belt Loops, and Webelos Pins. They'll be opportunities to learn more about Scouting and rich American Indian heritage, including making a piece your own handmade Indian regalia. Did we mention we are practically opening up the camp in the afternoon for all sorts of fun?! All three ranges (that's Archery, Rifle, and Shotgun) plus BB shooting as well. Not to mention the council renowned Thunder Bird will be open for units to sign up at the event to take a guided Hike. We will also have a big camp service project that scouts can participate in to fill up the hours needed to reach the next rank.

Saturday's program will culminate with an exciting Spring Pow-wow and expo. The pow-wow will celebrate and pay tribute to our American Indian heritage, featuring talented drummers, singers, and dancers from across the southeast as they wear regalia based on authentic Iroquois and Plains Indian designs and perform traditional dance styles such as grass, fancy, and traditional. The Expo is an awesome festival Jam-packed with awesome activities. Make your own Indian items, and let loose on all the booths and activities we have planned. If you have been to a Spring Pow-Wow before, you do not want to miss this!

- Boy Scout Indian Craft Booths
- Cub Scout Indian Craft Booths
- 2017 National Jamboree Booth
- Indian Regalia Booth
 - Head Dress Picture Booth
 - GAC Summer Camp Program Booth
 - GAC Camp Use Booth
 - Ultimate Frisbee Game

WEEKEND OVERVIEW

Coosa Lodge SPRING POWOW

Saturday's program will culminate with an exciting American Indian pow-wow. This pow-wow will celebrate and pay tribute to our American Indian heritage, featuring talented drummers, singers, and dancers from across the southeast as they wear regalia based on authentic Iroquois and Plains Indian designs and performing traditional dance styles such as grass, fancy, and traditional.

As a crescent moon rises over Camp Comer, join us in the Flatt Rock Council Ring for our closing show produced by nationally recognized Coosa Shows group. Webelos will have a special opportunity to participate in unique Crossover and Arrow of Light ceremony performed by nationally recognized teams from Coosa Lodge.

After the Coosa show, join us for an ice cream social, patch trading, and OA Lodge display!

Did we mention there's a patch? Everyone will receive a Coosa Lodge Order of the Arrow event patch just for attending!

Once you arrive at the site, report to the PowWow Headquarters. Have your

Unit Registration Sheet completed with all youth and adults attending from your unit. It will be helpful if the unit leader pays for everyone when registering. There will be designated separate camping areas for Troop and Packs. You will be expected to camp in your applicable designated campsites. Maps, a schedule of events and patches will be available at PowWow Headquarters when you check in. Just look for the Registration signs!
