

COOSA LODGE BROTHERHOOD COUNSELING FORM

To fully understand the Order of the Arrow and everything that happens during the Ordeal weekend, every OA member should seal their membership by going through Brotherhood Counseling. During Brotherhood Counseling, an Ordeal member will discuss the meaning of various symbols in the Ordeal Ceremony, learn the OA Song, and recite the Obligation of our Order. A counselor and Brotherhood candidate should use the Coosa Lodge Brotherhood Study Guide to confirm the candidate's knowledge of ALL information in the document. It is recommended that youth counsel youth and adults counsel adults.

To be eligible for the Brotherhood Honor, an OA member must be an active, dues-paid member of Coosa Lodge for the current calendar year and completed the Ordeal at least 10 months prior to Brotherhood Counseling. There is no additional fee for Brotherhood Counseling or Ceremony.

Upon Completion of Brotherhood Counseling, the Chapter Chief or Adviser should sign and date this form with a list of all members counseled in their chapter who wish to go through the Brotherhood Ceremony at that event. The form should be turned in at Registration of any lodge function with a planned Brotherhood Ceremony. Any questions should be directed to the Brotherhood Committee or Vice Chief of Inductions.

Chapter _____ Lodge Event _____

Name	Date of Counseling	Youth/ Adult

Chapter Chief/ Adviser _____ Date _____